

THE WORK WE ARE BLESSED TO DO

I have not been one of those “lucky ones” who get to the airport and happen to meet their favorite singer, actor, or athlete. Possibilities of seeing our earthly “heroes” seem to be very difficult, however, regarding Christianity, getting to meet true heroes is a reality. Why do I say that? Let us read what the writer to the Hebrews said, “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Hebrews 11:1). Our Lord told one of the apostles, “Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed” (John 20:29). It does not matter how famous the painter or sculptor might be, the face they put on their masterpiece is not really the Lord’s face. I look forward to that day when I will be in front of Him and see Him face to face! He is, without a doubt, the ultimate Hero!

Hebrews 11 deals a lot with heroes of the faith. Several names are given in that chapter about men and women who served God. There are those living today who are still serving Him. I have been blessed to meet many faithful servants whom I consider heroes of the faith because of their service, diligence, and teaching. During our recent visit to Colombia, a sister approached me because she wanted me to meet her husband. He told me how much he appreciates everything I do for the Lord through the Spanish Bible School, and how often he uses our materials to teach others. What filled my heart with joy that day was the love and desire of that brother to bring more souls to Christ by learning how to be more effective in reaching the lost. Our only goal is to bring people to the real Hero, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. More than 90 souls attended the seminar and the most common comment I heard from them was

“Thank you for everything you do for the Lord and for helping us to learn more ways to do the work we are committed to doing for our Lord”.

Spanish-speaking people from around the world are noticing the work we are blessed to do, and we keep getting emails from people asking us for more courses, to be formal students in the School, to answer Bible questions, or just to encourage us to keep doing the work. The course on the book of Acts is published and the first that is available in 4K resolution. Galatians and Philippians are the courses we are working on now. I’ll be speaking at the MSOP World Evangelism Seminar (remotely) this coming October 15th.

We have not seen our Lord’s face yet, and certainly, we have not seen some of your faces, but we are thankful to serve God with you in every way we can. We look forward to the day when we will be face to face and never depart from each other. Your financial help, prayers, and encouraging words are greatly appreciated by us and you are also part of our heroes of faith. Thank you so much for everything you do for the Lord, and for us! If you would like to know more about this work or would like to become a supporter, please feel free to contact WVBS, the University church of Christ, or me directly.

May God bless you and your family richly today and always!

To Him be the glory!
