

A Million Friends

In the 1970s, Roberto Carlos, a Brazilian songwriter, released a very popular song in Spanish which says,

*I want to take this friendly song to whoever might need it.
I want to have a million friends so I can sing it louder.*

His words express a deep desire for human connection and mutual support. Nowadays people need friends, real friends, and that is one of the many things we, as Christians, offer to the world. The Spanish Bible School seeks to take the gospel of Christ to whoever needs it (every soul), and because of that, we need more friends who can help us get the word of God “louder” to the world. This newsletter is sent to individuals and congregations we are blessed to call friends, but we know it can also reach many others who can become friends as well. Our Lord said,

*“Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you” (John 15:13-14).*

This work of the Lord is not easy to accomplish, but we are thankful to God for the many souls who keep encouraging, praying for, and supporting financially these efforts. As friends of Christ, we give our best in doing what He commanded us to do, and that is why we do what we do. I do not know how many faithful Christians are out there, but I am sure they are way over the million mark. The songwriter asked for a million friends, but as Christians we know very well we have the Best friend in the history of mankind because He gave His life for us.

Videos were recorded this month on Back to the Bible (BTTB) and The New You, a series for new Christians. BTTB videos will be launched in the first days of March. Lord willing, we will be attending the Memphis School of Preaching Lectures from March 31st to April 4th, and we hope and pray we will be able to get to see many of you there. The work on the course notes for II Corinthians has already started. Thank you for being friends of this servant, his family, and this work of the Lord, but most importantly, for being friends of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It might be the case that you are reading this newsletter and are not currently supporting this work of the Lord. If you would like to start doing it or would like more information about it, please get in touch with us. There is also a short video with a message to the church and its members at spanishbibleschool.org.

If you are currently supporting this work, THANK YOU so much for helping the Spanish-speaking world learn the truth of God's word.

May God bless you and your family richly today, and always!
To Him be the glory!

Coming soon, a new and improved buscandolaverdad.org!