

Transforming Lives

There is immense joy in serving God in every way we can. Pearl S. Buck, an American writer and winner of both the Pulitzer and Nobel Prizes, once said:

“The test of a civilization is in the way that it cares for its helpless members.”

At Escuela Bíblica en Línea, we believe in the transformative power of God’s Word. The School provides individuals from all walks of life the opportunity to deepen their knowledge of the Scriptures and share the Gospel with others. Our mission is simple yet profound: to make Bible teaching accessible, relevant, and life-changing. This commitment is beautifully illustrated in a recent message of a student in Costa Rica,

“Hello, I am very happy to be able to study, I am starting with the book of Genesis. I have been looking at all the other topics and I share them with several congregations and people. A brother in Christ let me know about your materials and I find them excellent. God bless you!”

This heartfelt message demonstrates the ripple effect of our work. It is not just about individual learning—it is about equipping souls to grow in the understanding of God’s Word and then share the message of hope and salvation within their communities. While the School is still developing, it currently offers 10 courses that are accessible to anyone seeking to study the Bible as it is — free from man’s opinions or preferences. These courses are completely free to students, supported entirely by the generous contributions of individuals and congregations who share our mission to reach the world with God’s Word.

The Bible reminds us of the value of equipping others to teach. As Paul wrote, “And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also” (2 Timothy 2:2). Every lesson delivered has the potential to reach countless others, creating a cycle of learning and evangelism that extends far beyond what we can imagine. This month we released our course on II Timothy, and the course on Titus is coming soon. Preparations for the book of James are nearing completion, and recordings scheduled for December. Each step brings us closer to fulfilling our mission.

Your support is crucial. Through your prayers, sharing of resources, and financial contributions, you are directly impacting lives. God’s Word truly transforms lives, and countless helpless souls in Hispanic communities need the truth of the Gospel and to know we care for them. Please help us continue to light the path for them.

If you have not supported this work of the Lord yet, we would love to discuss how you can get involved. For your convenience, an enclosed envelope is provided should you wish to begin supporting this mission’s work. You can also visit spanishbibleschool.org for more information or to donate online.

May God bless you and your family richly today, and always!

To Him be the glory!
