STRENGTHENING THE WORK

As we begin a new year, we do so with gratitude for God's guidance and a renewed commitment to continue building for His church with faithfulness and care. January has already reminded us that the Lord continues to open doors for teaching, training, and growth through Escuela Bíblica en Línea.

We remain actively engaged in developing course notes for the book of Exodus, while also beginning work on several lessons for Christian Evidences. Once the notes for these courses are completed, we will proceed with the remaining books of the Pentateuch. These efforts reflect our ongoing commitment to equip Spanish-speaking Christians with sound, accessible, and faithful biblical material, which is urgently needed in many congregations and communities.

This month, I was blessed to serve as a speaker at Focal Point, a workshop for preachers hosted by the University church of Christ in San Marcos, Texas, a congregation we have called home for many years. We also had a display table where many brethren, including several who are not Spanish-speaking, stopped to learn more about the School and how its materials can support evangelism and teaching in their congregations.

We are encouraged by the impact of these resources. A preacher from Tamaulipas, Mexico recently shared:

"Thanks be to our God, and to everyone who collaborates in producing these materials to continue preaching the gospel. I have been blessed to work using your material!"

As the work continues to expand, so do the responsibilities involved in directing the School. At this stage, there is a pressing need for a Video Editor and Graphic Designer to assist with production and visual development. Having this responsibility lifted from my shoulders, while still overseeing quality and direction, would allow greater focus on course development and new content. We are thankful to have identified an excellent candidate for this role and kindly ask for your prayers as we seek to raise the necessary support to compensate him appropriately.

We are deeply grateful for your prayers, encouragement, and support. The School continues because brethren like you are committed to equipping Spanish-speaking souls with the truth of God's Word. We invite you to continue building with us as we move forward into 2026. To learn more, support this work, or invite us to speak, please visit spanishbibleschool.org.

Thank you for walking with us and strengthening the work of the Church as we trust in God and serve Him together.

May God bless you and your family richly today, and always!
To Him be the glory!
