KINGDOM CONNECTIONS

When Paul wrote, "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me" (1 Corinthians 16:9, KJV), he recognized that opportunities to serve the Lord are often doors only God can open. During July, the Spanish Bible School was blessed to walk through several of those doors, allowing us to strengthen existing relationships, establish new ones, and continue expanding opportunities to reach Spanish-speaking souls with the gospel.

One of those opportunities was Polishing the Pulpit Branson 2026. For the second consecutive year, the School was represented in the Spanish-language sessions, where I had the privilege of helping coordinate and serve. Through the School, we also maintained an informational table, allowing us to thank many current supporters personally, meet prospective supporters, and introduce brethren to the resources God continues to make available. Attendance in the Spanish sessions nearly doubled from the previous year, and the feedback reflected overwhelming appreciation for the opportunity to study God's Word in Spanish while fully participating in the broader PTP experience.

Another encouraging opportunity was presenting the lesson, Why Spanish Ministry Matters for the Future of the Church in America. As the Hispanic population continues growing, the Spanish Bible School is blessed to help faithful brotherhood works reach Spanish-speaking communities with sound biblical resources. The lesson is now available through the PTP Podcast and, Lord willing, will soon be available on PTP365 as well.

This month also marks an important transition for the School. Our Video Editor and Graphic Designer will soon leave the team as he begins preparing for ministry at the Southwest School of Bible Studies. While we will certainly miss his valuable work, we rejoice that another laborer is answering the Lord's call to preach the gospel. His contribution has helped move several important projects forward, and we pray God's richest blessings upon him as he prepares for a lifetime of service.

The work of the School continues growing, but so do its needs. We remain deeply grateful to those who faithfully pray for and support this ministry. Your generosity enables us to produce biblical resources, assist other faithful works, and reach Spanish-speaking souls around the world. If you believe this is a work worthy of support, we humbly invite you to help us. To learn more about the School or to make a contribution, please visit spanishbibleschool.org.

We thank God for every opportunity to build Kingdom connections and for every person who helps make this work possible. May He continue to bless this work so that many more souls may come to know His truth.

May God bless you and your family richly today, and always!

To Him be the glory!
