

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

Jesus taught, "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much" (Luke 16:10, KJV). Faithfulness is often demonstrated in details that may seem small, yet those details can make an important difference. This month, we would like to call attention to one such detail concerning support for the Spanish Bible School.

When sending support for the Spanish Bible School, it is important to clearly identify on checks or online contributions the Spanish Bible School as the beneficiary or intended effort. Without that designation, World Video Bible School, where we have our office, has no way of knowing that the contribution is intended for this specific work. We are deeply thankful for every contribution, and this small detail helps ensure your generosity reaches the intended support for this Spanish effort.

We are also grateful to report that we have been able to begin the legal process toward permanent residence. Thank you to everyone who prayed, encouraged us, and contributed toward this significant expense. We are still short of the total funds that will be needed, but reaching this first step is a tremendous blessing. We will continue to keep you informed as the process moves forward.

Meanwhile, the work of the School keeps moving. Half of our Evidences in Favor of Christianity course has now been released, with additional lessons being edited and prepared. We are also completing the Evangelism and Missions course taught to the Spanish-speaking students at Brown Trail School of Preaching. Opportunities like this allow the School not only to make resources available, but also to help prepare brethren to use them as they take the gospel to others.

We are also thankful that our former Video Editor and Graphic Designer is now enrolled at Southwest School of Bible Studies. While his departure created an immediate production need for the School, we rejoice to see him preparing himself for greater service in the Lord's kingdom. Lord willing, the knowledge and experience he gains will also result in more faithful biblical content being produced for years to come.

The work keeps growing, and the work keeps going. We thank God for providing the opportunities, resources, and people that make this possible. We are especially grateful to those who faithfully support the School. If you believe in the value of providing sound biblical teaching to the Spanish-speaking world, we continue to need your help. May God help us remain faithful in the great responsibilities He gives us, including the details that help make them possible.

May God bless you and your family richly today, and always!

To Him be the glory!
